In Serious Condition.

Miss Mary Catherine Laughlin, who has been attending Cardome College at Georgetown, Ky., was taken suddenly ill with appendicitis last Saturday. She was taken to Lexington Sunday and was operated on Monday morning. Her condition remains very serious. Her mother, Mrs. F. C. Laughlin, is at her bedside.

Chinese Sacred Lilies

Just received by Corbett, the florist. The finest lot of bulbs we have ever handled, now on sale at the greenhouse.

Needle Workers.

Miss Julia Clark, formerly connected with The Novelty Store, has accepted a position with Mrs. Fannie Wilson Stephenson, the milliner, and will make a specialty of stamping and embroidery work. Now is the time to have your Christmas stamping done before the rush season. Some extra pretty patterns to select from.

Moves Office.

Dr. C. W. Compton, the popufar dentist, has moved his dental offices to the room over the Mt. Sterling National Bank and has furnished beautiful quarters.

"Wet" by a Majority of 48.

The local option election held in this eity and county Monday was bitterly contested by the temperance people, who won by a majority of 902. The whiskey people made no fight at all but will contest the election in the courts on the grounds that it was illegally called.

Much interest was shown in the election and a large crowd was on the streets all day. Church bells rang almost continuously and large numbers of women and children were on the 'streets singing temperance songs from 5 o'clock in the morning until the polls closed at 4 in the afternoon.

A celebration was held at the Christian Church last night, at which speeches were made Fresh oysters and eelery at Van- by leading "dry" supporters. The following is the official vote

Gounty Wins Suit.

In the suit of the City of Mt. Sterling vs. Montgomery County regarding payment for the brick streets around the Court House and jail, Judge Young decided that the county was not liable therefor and entered a judgment for the defendant. The city will take the case to the Court of Appeals. There is about $4,000 involved, and if Judge Young's decision is upheld by the higher court the city will have this amount to pay or the contractor will lose (this also being a disputed point.)

MAKING A NATIONAL PARK

Persistency and Energy of One Man Seved Crater Lake Region to Ocentry.

One morning in the spring of 1866 a thirteen-west-old boy served at a whool house in Hansse after a fivemile welk scross the preirie. At own, efter esting his lunch, he ricked up the crampled newspaper in which the lunch had been wrapped and in this read what purported to be a description of a wonderful "sunken labe" in Overon

It was a sensational, largely imagmaire, inscourate amount, but is typh sach a strong hold on this bee, Will G. Sueal, that two years later be arrived in Oregon in quest of this lake. It was not until after nime wars of questioning, however, that he et last met e man viso had antealir seen Craver lake

In 1885 he himself stood for the first time upon its wild and romanthe above. Before leaving it he resoired to have it made a national park. For years he spec money, time and energy to accomplish this: he went to Washington again and again. In 1902 he triemphed, and the Crater lake region became a na-

OUR EMBARRASSING LANGUAGE

Once there was an American girl who had been permitted to spend a year in England just at a critical point in her education.

She was not there long enough to become really British-only long enough to learn to mispronounce a few American words, and to commit homicide on a few bits of American rhetoric. In spite of these things, an American man fell in love with

He proposed—she accepted. But she was still a bit coy. When he opened his arms and dashed forward to taste the luscious frogrance of her lips, she demurred.

"No, Billy," she said-"you cannot kiss me on the mouth-yet. But you may kiss me on eyther cheek!" Billy stared, but did not move.

"Why do you hesitate?" she blushed. "I'm trying to choose which cheek," he answered. And then she had to explain that do? And it was her own fault.

RELIEVE IN SACRED WATERS

A remerkable Indian coremony is the Kumbahanan Mahamakan festreal. This feart takes place once a year, but the Hindu gols are supposed to visit the sacred tank on each twelch anniverser. It is seid that the god Brahma once requested. Sirs to collect the enence of all the vaters in the world.

It is understood that Sira recfinid in a pet which he hid away on the top of a mountain. During the food this pot floated away from its position and when the waters subsided it rested at a spot some distence swer now known as Kumbo-

LEECH A WEATHER PROPHET

Actions of the Small Insect in Jar Will Tell You What You May Expect.

A leech kept in a glass jar of water is an excellent weather prophet. The jar should contain about three rills of water, which should be changed once a week in summer, everr ten dars in winter.

When the leech lies at the bottom of the jar and enried up in spiral form you may reasonably rely on fine Teather.

If, however, it creeps up to the top of the jar and remains there. rein is coming.

When the leach darts about its lodging with great swiftness, it not suffering from a pain, but telling you to look out for wind.

If a hurricane is on its way the lesch will be more out of the water than in and will have convulsion movements The jar, by the way should be only pertially filled with warm while the top should be con ered with muslin.

When Jack Frost is going to pay 28 a visit the leach behaves as when foreselling fine weather-i. e., he lies at the bottom of the jar: but when show is coming he cl to the mouth of the jar and sticks

Why a Montgomery County Farmer Should Trade in Mt. Sterling.

1. Because he can do as well here as anywhere else. (Perhaps you CAN pick out some isolated instances to the contrary, but one awallow does

2. Because it costs money, and time, which is worth money, to get goods from mail order houses or to shop in other cities. (Did you ever go to Lexington because you thought you might save a dollar or two, and then UNNECESSARILY spend more than you thought you could save! Even if the articles were cheaper in Lexington and Louisville, ON AN AVERAGE the farmer who went to either place, or sent his family to either place, would be out more money than if he shopped in Mt. Sterling. Any farmer who sticks to home buying for one year will sure find his expenses are decreased. This would be true EVEN IF MT. STERLING WAS HIGHER.

3. Because a farmer who diverts trade from his county town is undermining the value of his own farm and the comfort of his own home. Suppose MT. STERLING was of the map, would your farm sell for as much per acred Not to any man who wanted to live on it. Suppose MT. STER. LING was a city of so,000 people, would it advance the price of your land? You know it would. Suppose every Montgomry farmer bought everything he could away from home, until MT. STERLING stores ceased to carry saything but the bare necessities of life, would it interfere with your comfort, inconvenience and profit? You know it would.

27 4. Kentuckians are the most claunish people on earth. To love and to stand up for home is one of their strongest characteristics. Why not stand up for your home town?

5. The merchants of MT. STERLING are your friends your neighbors. your relatives. You have grown up with them. Confidence and friendship exist between you. Wouldn't you rather they get your dollar than some man who cares nothing for you, in some town which is trying to take the trade away from your own community?

FREE BURGOO TO ALL

We will offer for sale, on the premises, to the highest and best bidder, on the day aforesaid, the land heretofore described as follows:

F rst in 28 tracts with the improvements as hereafter described.

Second, without the improvements, in two tracts. No. 1 facing on the Lexington pike of 72.601 acres. Tract No. 2 facing on the Lexington pike, and the Witherspoon White roadway of 24.957 acres.

Third, we will offer the entire boundary as a whole.

This land will be offeced in each of the three ways, according to our survey and plat, and will be sold that day the way it brings the most money.

Improvements, if sold in the 38 tracts, each of which has a beautiful building site, fine frontage and depth. We will build the Bonne Haven roadway, leaving the Lexington pike at a point 500 feet west of our corner adjoining T. C. Robiuson, and running north in a straight line, 3031 feet by 30 feet in width, through this boundary. We will grade this roadway to feet wide and make the macadam to feet wide, with 5 inches of compressed stone.

We will lay a gas line, erect poles for telephone and electric lights the entire length of Bonne Haven roadway, connecting each with the plants of this city We will also lay a water line and install a water system on Bonne Haven readway, beginning at the northwest corner of tract No. 3, the entire length of roadway. The water will be furnished from two or more never failing free stone black sand springs, which is only known for its quality and purity in Eastern Kentucky and West Virginia. There will be an abundance of water to supply residences, barns, and for irrigation purposes for each of these tracts.

The terms under which these tracts will be sold will be one-third cash, onethird in six months, belauce in one year with six per cent, interest from the day of the sale, vendors lien.

The Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association seems to have done wisely in offering a guaranteed stake of $3,000 for pacers of the 2:05 class, for it is now almost certain that for the first time in 1912 there will he a meeting of the four eracks, viz., Joe Patchen 2nd, Bradin Direct, Jones Gentry, and Knight Onwardo, the latter being the only horse that has defeated Joe Patchen 2nd during the season. Joe Gentry is unbeaten; Joe Patchen 2nd has lost but one race; Braden Direct but one, and that through an aecident, and many of the Canadian contingent stand ready to back the wonderful pony King Onwardo against any one of the three. "IT IS I, BE NOT AFRAID." Mark vi, 45-56-Oot. 6.

ODAY'S STUDY shows us how interested people become in anything that will relieve them of ailmeuts, which cause our race to be, as St. Paul described it, coutinned to gather wherever Jesus went, partly for bearing, partly from curiosity, and partly because the liessage that He gave was one of consolation. He was not forever blaming them for not keeping the Law. He was continually expressing sympathy for their weaknesses, and encouraging them to "go and sin no more."

After the feeding of the five thou sand, Jesus nrged His disciples to re turn to the other side of the Lake. He the solitude of the hills for prayer. It is noteworthy that nearly all of the Great Teacher's prayers are brief. prayers He went to the Father by Himself. Undonhtedly this would be a good example for all of His followers. Long prayers are frequently a weariness to the flesh, and are likely to contain vain repetitions, or to be attempts to instruct the Lord concerning

ters which He nnderstands much better than do His children Walking on the Sea.

The disciples experienced contrary winds. In the night they saw what tion walking on the water near their boat They cried out, for all saw it, and then they heard a voice saying, "It is I, be not afraid." Jesus got into the boat with them, and the wind ceased, to their amazement, for they had already forgotten the lesson of the feeding of the five thousand with the five loaves and two fishes. In addition to seeing in this a further manifestation of Divine power, we may see a spiritnai lesson. After the Master's ascension, the disciples were alone in the midst of a contrary people, and found progress difficult. This helped them to remember the Master's ability to come to them on the troubled seas, and how

His coming brought peace. St. Matthew gives an additional fea ture of this lesson not recorded by St. Mark. He tells us that when St. Peter learned that it was Jesus who walked upon the sea, he requested the falth is very precious in the Lord's sight.

In St. Peter's case it was entirely proper that he should attempt to go to the Lord, because the effort had been sanctioned. But when he saw the hoisterous waves his faith failed, and he cried, "Save, or I perish!" How true it is of all God's people that they would like to do some wonderful things to show their faith in the Lord! And how like St. Peter's are their experiences! They would utterly fail did not the Lord interpose for their rescue. St. Peter the Teachable.

Much has been said respecting St. Peter's rashness. The criticism is to some extent justified, but the Master loved him greatly on account of his zeal and energy. Although he was the oldest of the Apostles he was evidently one of the most teachable of were orderly and no trouble oct them. Of his mistakes he made a mirror, and thus, learning to know hlmself, he was safeguarded through the many dangers natural to his temperament; and he stands forth in the Scriptures as one of the noblest of the Apostles.

> There must have been a strain continually upon the Great Teacher and llealer, for He was continually expend-ing His vitality In healing the sick, virtue, or vitality, went out from Him, and all His public teachcost vitality. especially when He addressed multitudes. Thus was fulfilled in part the saying of the Prophet respecting structing all who gave evidence of being, or of becoming, children of God. When the ship reached shore the people recognized Him and began to carry the sick to where Jesus was. And wheresoever he entered, into villages, cities or conutry, they besought Him that these might touch if it were but the corner of His garment: "and as many as touched Him were made Monopoly on Mud Slinging.

Him, "Himself took our sickness Nevertheless, we find Him ever alert bout the Father's business, and iu-

Even if there was any desire, the Democrats don't have to sling mud in this eampaign. The thirdtermers and Taft followers have secured a monopoly of it. Roosevelt, himself, says all sorts of mean things of Taft, whom he made President, and of whom less than two years ago he said, "he is able, upright and distinguished, and entitled to the thanks of the American people for the great work he is doing." Hiram Johnson, Roosevelt's running mate, says that Taft is "the most humiliating eliaracter in all American history,"

The Taft speakers also engage in vilification, and if Senator Bradley and others omit to say unything that is severe and derogatory of Teddy it is only because they forget. Senator Bradley speaks of him as an "arrant demagouge," 'the greatest boss in the world, masquerading in the clothes of Montgomery County Court, Sep-Billy Brynn, which are too big for him," and in order to win is 'plunging the gleaming dagger of hate and malace into his political their own.

ANDROMEDA'S GREAT NEBULA

Most Astonishing Object in Heavens and Long a Mystery to Astronomers.

One of the most astonishing objects in the heavens is the great nebwhich is visible as a misty speck to the naked eye. It has long puzzled astronomers because, while its structure—a series of vast rings surrounding a central mass suggests a gaseous constitution, its spectrum ing a universe external to ours. as Capella; and Gore, the English astronomer, points out that if the Andromeda nebula were assumed to be an external universe, having a diameter comparable with that of the milky way, its mass would be forty million million times the mass of the sun. This is regarded as incredible and so may be taken as an additional argument in favor of the view that this nebula is a member of our system.—Harper's Weekly.

PRISONER MADE $300 A DAY

Paris Banker Conducta Extensive FInancial Transactions From His Ceil.

The Paris police recently raided a financial establishment in the rue Lafitte and confiscated the contents of the safe as well as the books. thereby putting a stop to the lucrative source of revenue of a banker named Zucco, who has been in prison for several months for irregular financial transactions.

M. Zucca, although ocupying a cell, first at the Sante and then at Fresnes, contrived to open another financial establishment in the same house as that occupied by his bank, which was closed by the police when he was arrested.

From his cell he directed a scheme for getting small investors to subscribe jointly for lottery bonds.

Business went well. The new establishment was soon employing ten clerks, and M. Zucco in his cell was making about $300 a day. But disappointed clients informed the police.—New York Tribune.

Mrs. Lou Hughes, aged 84 years, died at her home near Owingsville, Sunday, September 22, after a long illness. She was the widow of the late James Hughes, and leaves three children, Mrs. Hughes Atkinson, of this county; Mrs. Rose Allen, of Millersburg, and Mr. John Hughes, of Owingsville. She was a sister of Col. 'Robert Hazelrigg, of this city, and of the late Judge J. T. Hazelrigg, of West Liberty.

Mrs. Hughes was born in Bourbon county, and was a daughter of the late Major William Webb Brown. She was an aunt of Mrs. O. P. Clay and Misses Lake and Cynthia Kern, of Bourbon county, and of Mr. Roy Kern, of this Man Has Never Been Able to Learn All the Reasons for the Currents of the Ocean.

The townsman whose aequaintance with the silvery sea is usually confined to that made during his summer holidays finds the question of the tides most puzzling. He knows that the tides rise and fall twice in twenty-four hours, and that they are affected by the moon, and there his knowledge ends.

As a matter of face, tides vary considerably. Round about our own coasts are to be found some of the most terrible and dangerous tidal races and currents in the world; they are due to the presence of so much narrow, broken land.

Out in the open ocean the speed of the waves is amazing, but nearer land tides travel far more slowly. Down south the attraction of the moon raises an enormous wave that broken by intervening land.

Off the west coast of Scotland there is a whirlpool known as the "Caldron of the Spotted Seas," where the tide races at the speed of a mountain torrent. On the River Amazon, again, the tide forms a moving wall of water thirty feet and take no other. high, and reaching from bank to bank as it rushes inland from the Archbishop Bruchesi will enlist the members of the Catholic church of the province in a crusude against the tent caterpillar. Owing to the prevaelnce of wet weather this year there are on unusually large number of these pests in the fruit trees throughout the province.

The archbishop is greatly interested in fruit culture, and when his attention was drawn to the presence of the caterpillars he issued instructions to the clergy to have their parishioners take immediate steps to destroy nests. Attention to the matter now will mean the saving of the fruit erop.—Montreal Correspondence Toronto Globe.

"The summer girl is too villainously traduced."

"The summer girl, as a matter of fact, is as reserved and cultured as the winter girl. Why, then, these silly yarns about her?

"Only the other day an Atlantic avenue book seller told me with a chuckle that a summer girl had come into his shop to buy Virgil's 'Aeneid.' He asked her what on earth she wanted with such a heavy book as that. She answered that it began with the words, 'Arms and the man,' and so she thought it ought to be awfully thrilling."
